BIOATLAS on Food and Tourism

INVITATION
&
PROGRAM

BRASOV, ROMANIA
27-28 MAY 2016

http://bioatlas.rosita.ro

Welcome!

Dear colleagues,

On behalf of the Organizing Committee of the BIOATLAS International Conference, it is our great pleasure and privilege to invite you to join us in Brasov, Romania, between May 27 and 28, 2016.

"BIOATLAS 2016" Conference provides a forum for food and tourism related professionals, professors, lecturers and PhD students to exchange information on education, research, applications and developments the Food and Tourism and publish the most recent results. The topics include aspects related to Biodiversity and Agriculture technologies, new tendencies in Tourism development, IT&C in Agriculture, Food and Tourism Industry, etc. Contributions from various countries will allow a broadened perspective for all attending.

After the very successful meetings in 2006, 2008, 2010, 2012 and 2014, BIOATLAS 2016 offers us the opportunity to combine the beauty and hospitality of Brasov city with some of the outstanding works done on the important topics of food science and tourism, and to make easy contacts and relations among researchers from all around the world.

Brasov is probably the most beautiful city from Romania and one of the most important cities of Transylvania region, surrounded by the Southern Carpathians. Our city provides a mix of wonderful mountain scenery in the nearby Poiana Brasov, and medieval history with German influences in the old town.

We work closely with the Scientific Committee to provide an unforgettable scientific experience as well as to offer a social program filled with opportunities to share the beauty of Transilvania with colleagues and friends from all around the world in a very familiar and warm atmosphere.

We look forward to meet together in the spring of 2016 for a great Congress in Brasov!
